*This 2014 Corolla Auris is seriously like new ! The previous owner clearly babied it, and it shows. The Auris is a great-looking hatchback that's super practical too. The alloy wheels and that pearl white paint job make it stand out, and there's tons of room inside. Corolla hatchbacks are one of those great looking cars that simply ticks all the boxes and of course, the Corolla name is synonymous with reliability, and this one is no exception. It's built to last
